The closing exercises of this school were held on Tuesday last, and gave great pleasure to a large audience of friends. The young teacher showed herself, through the exercises of her pupils, to be worthy of highest confidence as an educator. The general order of the school was excellent : the recitations were conducted strictly as reviews of the term work, and visitors present were offered the privilege of selecting the lessons, and examining the scholars. This privilege was accepted in the case satisfactory to all. The reading classes had been well-drilled, and the accent, inflections and enunciaing of fifty-five words by this same young lady and Miss Beckie Ruth, of which only one word was not subsidy granted by the last Legislature might | correct. The songs, Number lessons, Geography lessons, and general exercises were most admirably presented and the satisfaction of friends was not only manifested upon their faces but by the numered children. In connection with the exercises of her school, Miss Aylett favored her audience with several songs and guitar accompaniments by herself, one of which-an original composition-deserves a will not permit it to be lost to future vocalists.
